Equality Objectives

January 2025

Together, we are one!

"We are far more united and have far more
in common than that which divides us"

Jo Cox

Batley Parish is a caring family which enables every individual to flourish in our inclusive community. We learn to love and love to learn in a trusting environment. We respect, forgive and love one another. Working together, Batley Parish enables us to have hope for a brighter tomorrow.

Opening statement

We welcome our duties under the Equality Act 2010. The school's general duties, with regards to equality are:

- Eliminating unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation
- Fostering good relationship between different groups
- Advancing equality of opportunity between different groups
- Promote mental health and wellbeing

We will not discriminate against, harass or victimise any pupil, prospective pupil, or other member of the school community because of their:

- Sex
- Age
- Race
- Disability
- Religion or belief
- Sexual orientation
- Gender reassignment
- Pregnancy or maternity
- Marriage and civil partnership

We aim to promote pupils' spiritual, moral, social and cultural development, with special emphasis on promoting equality and diversity, and eradicating prejudicial incidents for pupils and staff. Our school is committed to not only eliminating discrimination, but also increasing understanding and appreciation for diversity.

Aims to eradicate discrimination

We believe that a greater level of success from pupils and staff can be achieved by realising the uniqueness of individuals. Creating a prejudice-free environment where individuals feel confident and at ease is a commitment of the school. This environment will be achieved by:

- Being respectful
- Always treating all members of the school community fairly
- Developing an understanding of diversity and the benefits it can have
- Adopting an inclusive attitude
- Adopting an inclusive curriculum that is accessible to all
- Encouraging compassion and open-mindedness

We are committed to having a balanced and fair curriculum. We believe that our pupils should be exposed to ideas and concepts that may challenge their understanding, to help ensure that pupils learn to become more accepting and inclusive of others. Challenging and controversial concepts will be delivered in a way that prevents discrimination and promotes inclusive attitudes. We will also respect the right of parents to withdraw their children from certain classes which pose conflicts to their own beliefs.

Dealing with prejudice

We do not tolerate any form of prejudice-related incident. Whether direct or indirect, we treat discrimination against all members of our school with the utmost severity. When an incident is reported, through our thorough reporting procedure, our school is devoted to ensuring appropriate action is taken and a resolution is put into place which is both fair and firm.

Our pupils are taught to be:

- Understanding of others
- Celebratory of cultural diversity
- Eager to reach their full potential
- Inclusive
- Aware of what constitutes discriminatory behaviour

The school's employees will not:

- Discriminate against any member of the school community
- Treat other members of the school community unfairly

The school's employee's will:

- Promote diversity and equality
- Encourage and adopt an inclusive attitude
- Lead by example

Equality and dignity in the workplace

We do not discriminate against staff with regards to their:

- Age
- Disability
- Gender reassignment
- Marital or civil partner status
- Pregnancy or maternity
- Race
- Religion or belief
- Sex
- Sexual orientation

Equality of opportunity and non-discrimination extends to the treatment of all members of the school community. All staff members are obliged to act in accordance with the school's various policies relating to equality.

We will guarantee that no redundancy is the result of direct or indirect prejudice. All disciplinary procedures are non-prejudicial, whether they result in warnings, dismissal, or any other disciplinary action.

Equality Objectives

We are committed to ensuring equality of education and opportunity for all pupils, staff, parents and carers, irrespective of race, gender, disability, belief, religion or socio-economic background. In order to further support pupils, raise standards and ensure inclusive teaching, we have set the following objectives:

Objective 1 - To monitor and analyse pupil achievement & achievement by race, gender and disability and act on any trends or patterns in the data that require additional support for pupils, in order to raise levels of attainment for vulnerable learners in core subjects.

Objective 2 - To ensure that our academy community understands that we live in a diverse country that recognises, celebrates and tolerates different views, faiths and cultures.

Objective 3 - To identify any potential inequality, demonstrating that the school is attempting to eliminate discrimination and advance equality.

Objective 4 – To ensure that the school environment promote diversity in terms of race, gender and ethnicity.

Objective 5 – To ensure staff and pupils have an increased understanding of the protected characteristics.

Closing statement

Prejudice is not tolerated, and we are continuously working towards a more accepting and respectful environment for our school community.
